

Professional Experience

David Bartsch is a Registered Landscape Architect in Massachusetts and New Hampshire, and is certified by the Council of Landscape Architectural Registration Boards (CLARB). For fifteen years held the Construction Supervisor License in Massachusetts and has been a certified USGBC LEED Green Associate. David is certified in Wetland Delineation from the Nantucket Conservation Commission. David established Bartsch Landscape Architecture in 1999, and works from Mason, Boston, and Nantucket to serve private homeowners, municipalities, land developers, and institutional clients.

Education:

- Master of Landscape Architecture degree - Harvard Graduate School of Design
- Bachelor of Science degree in Environmental Design - UMass-Amherst, cum laude.
- Preparatory classes in Landscape Architecture - École Municipale Supérieure des Arts et Techniques, Paris, France. Selected first in class.

Professional Affiliations (current and former):

- PlanNH - Member of the Programming Committee
- Urban Land Institute (ULI) – Member of the Sustainability Council, the Resiliency Committee, and the Program Oversight Committee
- Council of Landscape Architectural Registration Boards
- Board of Trustees – Nantucket Landscape Association
- Governing Board – South Church Preservation Fund (Nantucket)
- President, Board of Trustees, Old South Church (Unitarian, Nantucket)
- Boston Society of Architects (BSA)
- American Society of Landscape Architects (ASLA) and Boston Chapter (BSLA)
- U.S. Green Building Council (USGBC)
- Association of Pool and Spa Professionals (APSP)
- Association of Professional Landscape Designers (APLD)

Workshops and Seminars:

“Sustainable Practices in Site Planning, Design and Construction” seminar presented at the ABX Conferences on Residential Design and Construction, Boston Society of Architects, April 2009 and 2010.

“The Urban Implications of Living with Water” – Contributing author of the Urban Land Institute report for the New England District Council. Published in September 2014.